

The city of Louisville will pay a bounty of $300 to each volunteer, who may hereafter be enlisted in the United States military service, when the certificate is presented showing that a credit has been given to the city of Louisville for the person enlisted or enlisted in as above.

WM. KATE, Mayor.

JOB PRINTING.

The Job Department in the Democrat Office is ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, &c., printed at the shortest possible notice at prices to suit the times.

Authorized Agent.

Will S. Hays, who is engaged on the Democrat, and is well known to most of our citizens, is fully authorized to make contracts for advertising, job work, &c.

His duties require him to be on the streets a considerable portion of the day, and as he is fully posted in prices, etc., any arrangements made with him will be the same as if made at the office.

DEATH OF MR. BEN. M. ANDERSON.—We must mention a few days ago of the attempt of suicide in Cincinnati, of Mr. Ben. M. Anderson, of this city. He was at one time Colonel in the Confederate army, but for some reason he came home, took the risk of his life and was at liberty. When the Confederates were arrested, charged with attempting to destroy the city by fire, Col. Anderson, who was at that time in this city, was arrested and taken to Cincinnati for trial, charged with being implicated in the conspiracy. He was incarcerated in a cell in prison there, while the trial of the others was going on, and a few days since a Federal guard stepped into his cell, when, as he thought, Col. Anderson jumped towards him, mistaking the soldier's pistol, and, placing the muzzle to his body, fired, the ball passing through his bowels. The wounded man lived forty-eight hours, and expired. Before his death he expressed his wish to be buried in his native city, and a few days since he was interred in the cemetery at New Albany, where he was buried in a vault with his wife and children. His remains were taken to New Albany, where he was buried in a vault with his wife and children. His remains were taken to New Albany, where he was buried in a vault with his wife and children.

INQUEST No. 317.—Held February 22, 1865, at the river bank back of Elm Tree Grove, on the body of a white man, name not known. Verdict—Cause to his death from drowning. Said man is about five feet six inches high, with dark, wavy hair and dark red whiskers; had on a black coat, dark trousers, white shirt and gray flannel undershirt, and a pair of blue boots, with a patch across the side of each right boot. His remains will be kept in the vault at the Western Cemetery, on Jefferson, between Sixth and Seventh streets, until Thursday at 8 1/2 o'clock. Any one missing their friend will please call and see the body.

JAS. C. GILL, Coroner.

W. A. MYERS' COMMERCIAL COLLISION.—We call attention to the very excellent illustration, the advertisement of which will be found in another column. Nothing is more important to a young man fitting himself for business than the advantages offered by this institution. The branches are such as will be particularly valuable to the youth preparing himself for business, and the hours are arranged so as not to conflict with other engagements. Mr. Myers has long been engaged as a teacher, and is thoroughly qualified.

NEW FIRM.—We invite the attention of our readers and the public generally to the advertisement of Messrs. Hutchings, Duncan & Co. in another column of to-day's paper. They have established a large wholesale grocery and commission house on Main street, between Seventh and Eighth, where they have on hand a large and well-assorted stock of groceries, &c. They are clever, energetic, and any business interested in their work will receive prompt and careful attention.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Wednesday, Feb. 22. The first person presented before the court this morning was John Winkman, charged with being drunk; he was fined $5.

Fred. Schaffer and Frank Hildebrand, assaulting Mary Schaffer; bail of each $100 to answer.

Geo. Lane, disorderly conduct; discharged.

Adolph Myers, stealing mule; discharged.

Twenty second of February.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the birth-day of Washington. It was almost totally unobserved by our citizens and the military authorities. There was a time when the anniversary of the birthday of the immortal Washington was solemnly observed; but alas! how time has changed men and things.

HARRISONS No. 1.—Yesterday was a busy day at the barracks. Bobby Brent kept his "goose-grip" driving all day. One hundred and fifty-five convicts arrived from different points. Two hundred and nine men were forwarded to Nashville, en route to New York, twenty-three to Cairo and five to St. Louis.

Remember the malice at the Louisville Theatre, on Saturday afternoon, at 8 1/2 o'clock, for the benefit of the family of the late Col. Jas. S. Wallace. We sincerely hope every one will lend their help and fill the house to overflowing.

H. W. Cochran, Seventeenth Indiana, and John H. Galt, Twenty-ninth Kentucky were arrested yesterday for being drunk and wearing citizens' clothes. Guardsmen for five days.

John Naugel, Second Massachusetts, and John Phillips, Twenty-fourth Ohio, were arrested yesterday for fighting. They will be sent to the field where they can fight the rebels.

We noticed several citizens engaged yesterday in closing the mad way from before their doors. Up with your sideboards on the carting, or you'll be swamped.

A salute of one hundred guns was fired at Fort No. 1, yesterday, and thirty-five were fired at Fort No. 4, by order of the post commander.

Quite a number of soldiers were arrested yesterday for being on forbidden streets. They will be sent to their regiments immediately.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. Col. Will H. Coy has returned to the city from Cincinnati, whither he has been on official business. He looks cheerful as ever.

Mr. John Dugan, messenger of the Adams Express Company, has our thanks for Nashville papers.

There was very little military news of importance yesterday. It was Washington's birthday.

See advertisement of dry and clean for sale in another column.

Amusements.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—The malice given at Wood's Theatre yesterday for the benefit of the late Col. Wallace's family, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a complete success, the house being crowded, and hundreds were turned away, unable to gain admittance. To-night we are to have the interesting drama of The Stranger and the face of the Little Rebel. In the first place Miss Alice Gray appears as Mrs. Haller, and Mr. Albaugh as the Stranger.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—Another nobleman audience greeted the celebrated Warren combination last night, and with each performance they continue to ingratiate themselves into the favor of our citizens by their admirable performances. To-night they appear in the stirring comedy of "The Young Couple," and the farce of "Dundee and the Pic-Nic."

THE VARIETIES.—At the Varieties crowded houses continue to greet the new stars and old favorites. Miss Annie Bordwell, the queen of song, as she is so justly styled, and Mr. Warren Bordwell, are excellent in their line of business, and are destined to become favorites. Miss Lizzie Louie, the talented and fascinating comedienne, would just to blush many of our citizens, and Mr. J. J. Davis is a trump. Miss Clara Burton, danseuse, is good in her role; making the best company of artists ever appearing at the Varieties. Don't fail to go. An entire change of programme this evening, as will be seen by referring to the advertisement.

MINSTRELS.—Shiffert & Gaylord's Minstrels, one of the best of the kind, will make their debut at the Music Temple on Thursday evening, March 23. They are spoken of by the press everywhere in terms of the highest praise.

CHANGE IN THE WARD OF THE CITY.—We understand that the Legislature has passed an act changing the wards of the city and creating a new ward, to be known as the Twelfth. The Twelfth Ward has been so changed as to include that portion of the city lying between the west side of Fourth street and the east side of Fourteenth street. The Eleventh Ward will include that portion of the city lying west of Fourth street and east of Twenty-first street north to Portland avenue, thence along the center of Bridge street to the Ohio river. The Twelfth Ward will include that portion of the city lying east of the Ohio river, and west of the center of Bridge street to the Ohio river. Our citizens living in the lower portion of the city should take notice of this change, as it will change some of the voting precincts at the coming election.

ARMY OF HORSE THIEVES.—Some time ago a number of horses and mules belonging to W. McCullum, A. McCullum and Mr. Hays, was stolen in Hardin county, Ky., were stolen, and it was thought that the thieves had taken them in this direction, and the facts were consequently made known to the officers here, and at New Albany, who at once set about to recover the stolen property and bring the guilty parties to justice. Two of the stolen horses were found in this city by Officer Lumsden, but it was found that one or more of the thieves had crossed to Indiana, and Mr. Albaugh, of New Albany, was informed of the facts. He started in pursuit of the parties and arrested them some four miles below New Albany. Another of the party was arrested in this city. The two men arrested, Adolph Myers and John Wertz, are now in the jail in this city.

Mayor Kays publishes in this morning's Democrat a "notice" to the effect that the bonds of the city will be issued to the amount of $800,000, as authorized and to raise a bounty, as soon as they can be procured and filed up, which will be in a few days.

The bonds are for $1,000 each, with coupons and are to be paid semi-annually, interest on one hundred of the bonds being payable in ten years and the other hundred in twenty years.

There is a safe and sure investment. Let our citizens invest.

Some time since we made mention that the Council has passed a resolution requesting the Legislature to send the charter of the city this the office of Tax Collector should be abolished, and the office of Tax Receiver created in their place, and that the Council should elect such receiver. We understand that the Legislature has given to the Council the power to abolish the office and create that of receiver, but that the receiver is to be elected by the people, and not by the Council.

PRESENTATION.—Last night the members of Campus Lodge of Free Masons presented Geo. P. Howe, Jr. Master of the lodge, with a beautiful gold-headed cane. The cane was presented on behalf of the members of the lodge by Dr. Swan, S. D., in a very neat speech, which was replied to by Mr. Howe in a very eloquent and appropriate speech. The cane bears the inscription "From Campus Lodge to John H. Howe, W. M."

UNITED STATES COURT.—There was but little of interest transacted at this court yesterday that would be of interest to the city. In the case spoken of yesterday, the Judge decided that the parties did not have the authority to compromise the matter. The Court meets again at 10 o'clock this morning.

The benefit of Miss Kitty Blaine, and at Wood's Theatre Friday night, promises to be a most complete success. This young lady has labored hard to please our citizens, and we hope that she will be rewarded by a full house.

The Mayor yesterday succeeded in putting in thirty-three recruits to the credit of the city's quota. The work goes bravely on, and if our citizens will but come forward and subscribe the twenty-five dollars there will be no draft in our city.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL TO-NIGHT.—Pursuant to adjournment both Boards of the General Council will meet at the City Hall at 7 1/2 o'clock to-night. As there will be business of importance before the Council, a full attendance is desired.

Our readers should not forget that Mr. C. J. Herrell takes a benefit at Music Temple on next Friday evening. The bill offered is a most excellent one, and, as Mr. Herrell is an actor of merit, we hope that the house will be crowded.

Resolved: That a committee of seven be appointed to act as a sub-committee to confer with the city committee in order to settle all the required quanta. The following gentlemen were appointed: Lawrence Young, Mr. J. B. Galt, Mr. Frederick Geo. P. Dorn, Ed. Cannon, Wm. Murray and Judge W. H. Hays.

Resolved: That this committee be appointed to meet at the Mayor's office at two o'clock to-day, to confer with the members of the committee in behalf of the city, and report at a meeting next Saturday.

After which the meeting adjourned.

GERRILLAS ON THE NASHVILLE RAILROAD, Night before last the down passenger train on the Nashville railroad was thrown off the track and fired into the air, at Rich Pond Grove. Fortunately no one was injured. The guerrillas left after firing one volley.

We understand that Capt. Pallam, Twenty-seventh Kentucky, with his company, who are now stationed at Harbansburg, Ky., had a light skirmish with some guerrillas near that place the other day, the guerrillas of course coming off second best.

Secretary Stanton's refusal to send in his annual report to Congress is occupying pretty hard comments. The excuse urged for this delinquency is that General Grant desires the delay.

GERRILLAS IN BLOOMFIELD.—Yesterday morning a squad of guerrillas dashed into Bloomfield, Kentucky, and after firing several shots at the Federals, they scampered out of town again.

Day before yesterday a lot of Federals and guerrillas had a little "brush" in Singletown. We did not hear whether any one was hurt or not.

We learn that a gang of guerrillas were operating in the vicinity of Nashville a few days ago.

"COULDN'T SEE IT."—Some gentlemen walking through one of the large glass doors at the bank on the corner of Bullitt and Main streets, a few evenings since. He never made the discovery until he came through it, and it cost him something to make the discovery that the door was glass.

Some little excitement was created at the Louisville Hotel yesterday morning in consequence of the turning out of a fire, which filled several rooms with smoke. No damage was done.

The house occupied by Mr. T. G. Phillips, corner of Second and Main streets, is being altered and will have a back established in it. When finished it will be a neat building.

The malice at Wood's Theatre yesterday afternoon was well attended.
